Political commentator Bill Maher recently asked called for Congress to hold Dr. Anthony Fauci accountable if he lied to the American people about the origins of SARS-CoV-2.

"Fauci definitely committed crimes if he's lying to Congress," Maher said on Bill Maher's HBO show, Real Time. "Fauci's been lying under oath and he should absolutely be held accountable for it."

On Jan. 6, 2022, the U.S. House of Representatives Select Subcommittee on the Coronavirus Pandemic will interview Fauci, the former director of the National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases (NIAID), about the origins of COVID-19 and the government's pandemic response.

The interview will take place behind closed doors. However, House investigators will schedule a later public hearing to take Fauci's sworn testimony.

Fauci led the pandemic response as a lead member of President Trump's White House Coronavirus Task Force and President Biden's chief medical adviser.

Iversen said the expository committee hearings to "be zoning in on the origins of the virus and China," including "support" actions by Fauci or his associates in blocking document requests from Congress and "flaunting federal records rules" to hide the facts.

"They're looking for a transparent accounting of what he knew, how he knew, from whom did he know," he said.

Fauci and his lawyer have delayed his appearance before Congress since the subcommittee requested it in February.

Iversen cited "increasing evidence that seems to point to Fauci having knowledge of the Wuhan Institute of Virology."

He said of particular interest is Fauci's role as NIAID director in funding dangerous "gain-of-function" research on coronaviruses at the Wuhan Institute of Virology (WIV).

Iversen said Fauci and his associates "went to great lengths to make it appear that they didn't fund" science that may have created the coronavirus from the Wuhan lab and rapidly reverse their position in a 2020 article in Nature Medicine that was ghostwritten and backed by Fauci, arguing that a COVID-19 lab origin was "implausible."

Iversen said Congress must demand answers from Fauci.

"We still have no received some answers to some of these things that are really suspect," he said. Fauci's actions "are pointing to the bottom of it."

He played a snippet of a Fox News interview with Fauci, who said Fauci directed her unfettered access to

"He commissioned scientists who were saying in private that they thought it was a manipulated virus, manipulated in a lab and came from a lab," Paul said.

Paul also said Fauci "was visiting the Chi in early 2020" and seven CIA scientists "said it's 14 ways it came from a lab, and then they were removed by supervisors."

"We need to know whether Anthony Fauci influenced the supervisors, or perhaps … did the CIA influence Anthony Fauci? We also need to know what he knew was visiting and what he was there for. Our understanding is that he wasn't recorded on tape. Lug, but he was appearing frequently with the CIA."

Paul said Congress hasn't been able to get a scrap of information on Fauci's high level government discussions on dangerous biowarfare, despite three years of requesting them.

Iversen, who previously demanded answers from Fauci, and questioned why he wasn't fired for lying to Congress during the pandemic, said, "It's proof that Rand Paul and others are still on this."

"I know a lot of us have moved on from the pandemic, we just want to be our lives back and we want to move on," he said. "But this is a very important, important that we continue holding these guys' feet to the fire — that we continue to hold them accountable."
